What is a PSPO?
Public Space Protection Orders were created by the 2014, Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act to deal with any nuisances or problems in a particular area that affects the local community's quality of life. A PSPO imposes conditions on how an area can be used, with the aim of preventing anti-social behaviour in public spaces.

Problems in this area.
We have been aware of some issues in this area that is or is likely to have a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality.

Who are we consulting?

This consultation involves all stakeholders who may be affected, including the general public, general public and Northamptonshire Police. This document will also be sent to elected members. Anyone can give their views during the consultation period which runs from 5th August to 15th September 2017.

How can I comment on the proposals?
We would welcome your responses and suggestions about ways we could introduce the new PSPO. Please provide your comments by using the questionnaire or fill online form: <http://www.kettering.gov.uk/millroadpspo>
